1. It is the Agent's responsibility to find and introduce a Purchaser to the Seller in respect of the abovementioned property and to procure the sale thereof.

2. On the sale of each property/the property for the aforesaid price such lower or higher purchase as the owner may agree to accept, the Owner shall be and become obliged to pay the Agent a commission as specified above.

3. The owner shall become obliged to pay the Agents commission of:

   3.1 The Property should be sold by the Owner during the term of his Sole and Exclusive Mandate, whether by or through the Agent or in person by the Owner direct or any other Estate Agent and/or;

   3.2 The Property should be sold in the manner contemplated in 3.1 above after the date of termination to any Purchaser who was introduced during the term of this agreement.

4. No amendment of any of the terms and conditions hereof nor any variation thereof or any addition thereto nor any termination of this mandate shall be of any force or effect unless in writing and signed by both Owner and the Agent. No waiver of any of the terms and conditions hereof (including this clause) shall be of any force or effect unless in writing and signed by the party waiving.
